NOTE: The design at the upper middle is a crown and a flag with rays running out from a circle. This was the French King's own special banner for the Crown (regular) Army, and was first used by Charlemagne in 711 A.D.

In 1765, Michael was naturalized as a British citizen in the city of Reading, after a residence of seven or more years in the colony of Pennsylvania. His wife was named Margaret _____, and they lived in Ruscombe Manor Township, Berks County, Pa. He died in 1776, and letters of administration were granted his wife on June 15, 1776. She died in 1796. The original discharge and naturalization papers referred to above, were in the hands of a descendant, Howard Fisher, Hummels Wharf, Pa., in 1933.
